Undertrial Prisoners

1124. SHRI VIJAY J. DARDA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) what is the estimated number of undertrials prisoners as on the 31st March, 2000, State-wise, languishing in jails beyond 6 months;

(b) whether the problem has been reviewed in detail in depth;

(c) if so, the details of emerging trends, State-wise; and

(d) the details of the comprehensive action plan proposed and directions issued to the states in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I.D. SWAMI): (a) Available information on the number of under-trial prisoners in jails beyond six months, as on the 31st December, 1999, is given in the enclosed Statement (See below)

(b) to (d) Both Government and Judiciary are concerned with the presence of a large number of under-trial prisoners in jails. Various issues relating to prison administration including the presence of under-trials are discussed with the State Governments from time to time. A review of such issues was done in August-September, 1999 in the Regional Meetings of the Heads of Prison Departments of all States and Union Territories.

The Chief Justice of India (CJI) vide his letter dated 19.11.99, has impressed upon all the Chief Justices of High Courts that every Chief Metropolitan Magistrate or the Chief Judicial Magistrate of the area, in which a District jail falls, may hold court once or twice in a month, depending upon the workload, in jail to take up the cases of those under-trial prisoners who are involved in petty offences and are keen to confess their guilt. The CJI has further suggested that "Legal Aid Counsel" mav be deputed in jails to help such prisoners and move applications on their behalf on the basis of which the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate or the Chief Judicial Magistrate may direct the investigating agency to expedite the filing of the police report.

In pursuance of the orders passed by the Supreme Court of India in the case—R.D. Upadhyay Vs. State of Andhra Pradesh & Others on 13.10.1999 and 7.12.1999, the Central Governments and UT Administrations to take urgent necessary steps for expeditious disposal of cases of under-trials who are languishing in various fails in the country.
